All applicants must answer the remaining questions:

20. State clearly every ground on which you claim that you are being held unlawfully. Summarize briefly the facts supporting each ground. If necessary, you may attach pages stating additional grounds and facts supporting them.

CAUTION:

Exhaustion of State Remedies: You must ordinarily present your arguments to the highest state court as to each ground before you can proceed in federal court.

Subsequent Petitions: If you fail to set forth all grounds in this petition, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.

Following is a list of the most frequently raised grounds for relief in habeas corpus proceedings. Each statement is a separate ground for possible relief. You may raise any grounds, even if not listed below, if you have exhausted your state court remedies. However, you should raise in this petition all available grounds (relating to this conviction) on which you base your belief that you are being held unlawfully.

DO NOT JUST CHECK ONE OR MORE OF THE LISTED GROUNDS. Instead, you must also STATE the SUPPORTING FACTS for ANY ground you rely upon as the basis for your petition.

- (a) Conviction obtained by a plea of guilty which was unlawfully induced, or not made voluntarily, or made without an understanding of the nature of the charge and the consequences of the plea.
- (b) Conviction obtained by the use of a coerced confession.
- (c) Conviction obtained by the use of evidence gained from an unconstitutional search and seizure.
- (d) Conviction obtained by the use of evidence obtained from an unlawful arrest.
- (e) Conviction obtained by a violation of the privilege against self-incrimination.
- (f) Conviction obtained by the prosecution's failure to tell the defendant about evidence favorable to the defendant.
- (g) Conviction obtained by the action of a grand or petit jury which was unconstitutionally selected and impaneled.
- (h) Conviction obtained by a violation of the protection against double jeopardy.
- (i) Denial of effective assistance of counsel.
- (j) Denial of the right to appeal.
- (k) Violation of my right to due process in a disciplinary action taken by prison officials.

- A. GROUND ONE: My right to due process in a disciplinary action taken by the DA and court

Supporting FACTS (tell your story briefly without citing cases or law):

I was out on appeal when the 10th court of appeals rejected my motion due to not understanding it. My attorney refiled and it was accepted. I was arrested without reason, rejected bond and put in jail. My bond was good and I had no violations. But now I'm in TDCJ

- B. GROUND TWO: No reason was ever given for why I had been arrested. My appeal and bond were still good.

Supporting FACTS (tell your story briefly without citing cases or law):

I do not feel I was or have been treated fairly by being arrested for no reason. My bond was good and my appeal was refiled. I was and still feel I was not treated fairly because probation and the judge had it out for me.

- C. GROUND THREE: Denial of effective counsel my attorney did not even try to fight anything.

Supporting FACTS (tell your story briefly without citing cases or law):

my attorney had not one witness nor did he even prepare for my original hearing. When he was paid in full then and only then did he tell me the court are going to give me my whole 10 years back and I had no chance for any run of luck. He just said that and walked away<sup>7</sup>. He did nothing.

Additional response to ground(3) question(C)

Not only did the court reject my motion filed by my lawyer the one time I have told you about there were 3 or 4 other times my attorney had to refile due to mistakes made on the lawyers part. The 10th court kept sending them and rejecting my motion and my lawyer kept filing. I never once was told of any of this messing up. I only found out when I filed for all of my paper work from my lawyer. And I had to turn him into the State Bar to get all of my paper work. He took my money and did nothing for me what so ever. I have lost everything wife, children, home, everything

- D. GROUND FOUR: Very harsh very unfair punishment for a simple violation after 9 years and 2 months of good clean Probation.

Supporting FACTS (tell your story briefly without citing cases or law):

I was given my whole 10 years back for a violation only, no new charges nothing more then a violation, without regards to how good and successful I had been on probation for 9 years and 2 months just have 10 years TDC and a $1500 fine. I have lost everything additional answer to ground(4) question(D)

Not only was my violation a two(2) year state jail felony it was also or could have been 180 days in county a fine and then releasing me off of my probation. But as I said the judge would not hear it and he gave me my whole 10 years back. Even though I was ~~very~~ very successful on the 9 years and 2 months I was on probation he gave me my whole 10 back. I have lost everything. I have nothing to my name. Nothing. My punishment was way too harsh for the violation I was revoked on.

Additional information on ground(5) question(E)

I had all of my case papers when I went in front for a motion for a rehearing or for a new trial, I had each and every time and every judgement there was the same Chief justice. It was overruled and affirmed each and every time by Justice Tom Gray of the Tenth Court of appeals. No other judge ever ruled on my case in any of the filings my attorney put in.

23. Do you have any habeas corpus proceedings or appeals now pending in any court, either state or federal, relating to the judgment or proceeding under attack?

Yes
